My maiden <maiden> name was Marthy Cannary. I was born in Proncetown, <Princeton,> Missouri, May 1st, 1852. My father and mother <mother> were natives of Ohio. I had two brothers and three sisters, I being the oldest of the children. As a child I always had a fondness for adventure and outdoor exercise and a special fondness for horses which I began to ride at an early age and continued to do so until I became an expert rider being able to ride <ride> the most vicious <vicious> and stubborn of horses; <horses;> in fact the greater portion of my life in early <early> times was spent in this manner. In 1865 we emigrated from our home in Missouri by the overland <overland> route to Virginia City, Montana, taking five months to make the journey. <journey.> While on the way the greater portion of my time was spent in hunting along with the men and hunters of the party. In fact I was at all times with the men when there was excitement and adventures to be had. By the time we reached Virginia City, I was considered a remarkably good shot and a fearless rider for a girl of my age. I remember many occurrences <occurrences> on <on> the journey from Missouri to Montana.
